DZD RESEARCH

Research for a Future without Diabetes

The German Center for Diabetes Research (DZD) is a national association that brings together experts in the field of diabetes research and combines basic research, translational research, epidemiology and clinical applications. The aim of the DZD is to develop novel strategies for personalized prevention and treatment of diabetes. Partners are Helmholtz Munich, the German Diabetes Center in Düsseldorf, the German Institute of Human Nutrition in Potsdam-Rehbrücke, the Paul Langerhans Institute Dresden of the Helmholtz Zentrum München at the University Medical Center Carl Gustav Carus of the TU Dresden and the Institute for Diabetes Research and Metabolic Diseases of the Helmholtz Zentrum München at the Eberhard-Karls-University of Tuebingen. Associated partners are located at the Universities in Heidelberg, Cologne, Leipzig, Lübeck and Munich. Evidence-based information on diabetes mellitus is provided on the national diabetes information portal diabinfo.de in different languages.

DZD DIABETES RESEARCH SCHOOL

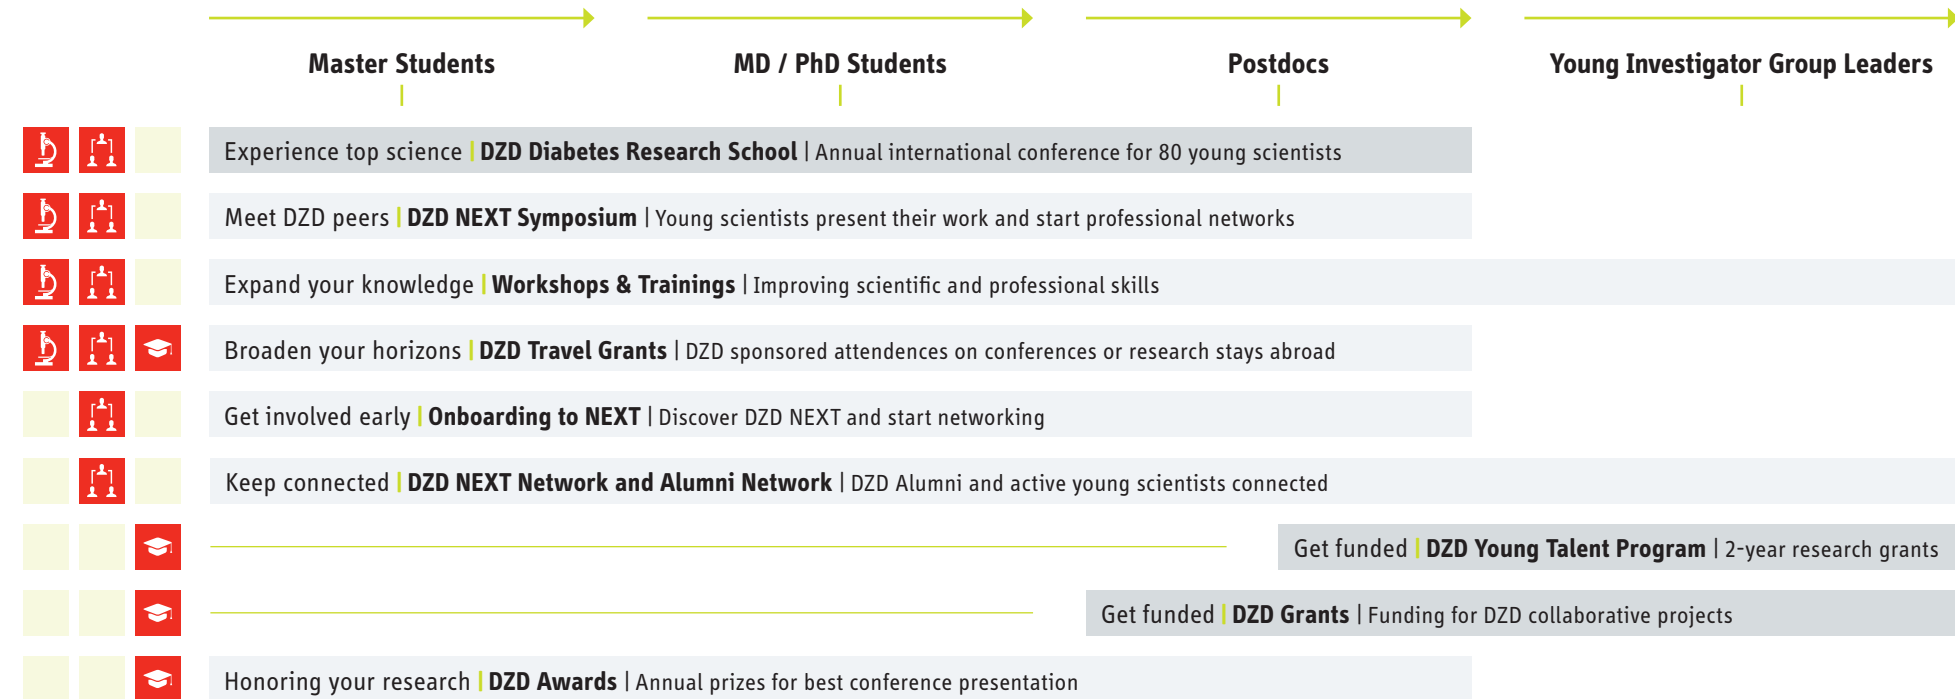

Annual International Conference for Young Diabetes Researchers

I very much enjoyed the casual atmosphere because it made everyone seem approachable. I liked the choice of experts and the up to date research topics.
